On the bookstall tonight

There is a selection of Tear Fund Christmas Cards for sale on the bookstall tonight. Also, there are some new and exciting books - suitable for last minute gifts! For example:

"A Minor Indiscretion" - The true adventure of the capture, imprisonment and trial in Morocco of Graham Hutt and his friends.

"Staying Alive" - John Delaney tells of his tough life and conversion – a paratrooper's story.

"The Hospital by the River" - Dr Catherine Hamlin's compelling account of how she and her husband founded the first specialist gynaecological programme for the women of Ethiopia.

"Dark Matter" - A thinking Fan's Guide to Philip Pullman, by Tony Watkins of the Damaris Trust.

Christmas card post-box

The Christmas card post-box is available this evening. The cards will be sorted and returned to Chapel next Sunday evening for collection. Please do include surnames on the envelopes as this helps the sorting process.

Thanks

Margaret and Michael would like to thank everyone that helped in any way last weekend. The Discovery Christmas presentation went really well and God blessed us at the Carols for the Community event last Sunday.
