Bob and Jill Keay's visit

Bob Keay will be visiting us on 3rd and 4th July, when he will be preaching with a view to becoming our new Pastor!

On Saturday 3rd July, we will be going punting as originally scheduled, and back to the Proudfoots for supper. Bob and Jill will be joining us for this, and it will be an excellent opportunity to get to know them (and for them to see us as we really are!).

On Sunday 4th July, we will be having a special bring-and-share lunch, and we encourage everyone to come. After lunch, we will be asking Bob and Jill to say something about who they are and what makes them tick.

Bob will be preaching at both morning and evening services on the 4th, so we hope everyone will get a chance to hear him. If you can't make it, be sure to listen to the tapes!

The Saltmine Theatre Company

Presents C S Lewis' The Screwtape Letters adapted for the stage by Nigel Forde.

Friday 25th June, 7.30pm
at the Mumford Theatre, Cambridge
Tickets £7 (£5)

Punting

Please sign up on the noticeboard for the annual punt on the Cam on Saturday 3rd July and mark if you are able to provide a lift or require a lift to Royston, and if you will be willing to be a 'punter'.

A buffet supper will follow at Andrew and Ashlea's - if you are able to bring a pudding for the supper, please let Ashlea know in advance.

Book review

ROCK ON, TOMMY!

Cannon and Ball tell their story, individually and as a double act - writing alternate chapters about their life. There are ups and downs for each of them, and the conversion of Bobby Ball is a turning point in their career and double act.

A MAN OF FAITH

An inside look at the faith of the president and its impact on the world. A biography of George W. Bush by a respected Washington Journalist, David Aikman. This insightful biography, containing original information found nowhere else, is based in part on interviews with those who are closest to President Bush (see back cover for who these are).

A revealing look at how the President's faith impacts his personal life, his policymaking, and our world.
Hardback only, £10.99.

A THEOLOGY OF THE DARK SIDE - putting the power of evil in its place by Nigel G Wright (Spurgeons College, London).
(From the Preface)

'The underlying issues about the nature of evil.... are perennial, and those who are believers in the God of Jesus Christ need to be well armed, both intellectually and spiritually, to address them. Above all, this book is about how we are to think about evil, and by derivation, how we are not to think'

Detailed discussions of the nature of evil, and the forms it takes, are followed by careful and thorough examinations of the activity of evil and how the war against the power of the dark side may finally be won.

[The subject of this book seemed to tie in with the comments on evil by George Bush]
