The Saltmine Theatre Company

Presents C S Lewis' The Screwtape Letters adapted for the stage by Nigel Forde.

Friday 25th June, 7.30pm
at the Mumford Theatre, Cambridge
Tickets £7 (£5)

The Screwtape Letters first published in 1942, was immediately recognised as a milestone in Christian literature and has sold over half a million copies.

This very exciting two hour production is faithful to the original text, bringing to life C S Lewis' vivid insight into the spiritual battles faced by every Christian. The play balances satirical humour with the darker and sinister attacks that Christians face.
