Come at 7:00pm for supper in the garden at 7:15pm, followed by a presentation 'Fun and Faith' by Tommy Cannon inside at around 8:30pm.

Please take an invitation which is available at the back of the Chapel and invite your friends. Admission is free.

Preaching with a View

Bob Keay will be visiting us on 3rd and 4th July, when he will be preaching with a view to becoming our new Pastor!

Please keep both these days free - we will be organising an event on 3rd July where we can all get to know Bob and his wife Jill a bit better. Bob will be preaching at both morning and evening services on the 4th, so we hope everyone will get a chance to hear him.

Thanks

Well the first 60 years have been celebrated well and truly. Now I feel about 40. I travel now towards my three score and ten with warmth and affection around me that I felt at my Birthday Bash.

I am glad that I have this opportunity to thank all that were involved in the arrangements for the Birthday Supper..... superb job. I had a wonderful time, and would also like to thank all who gave up a Saturday night in front of the telly to share it with me.

Lastly (but not least) Linda receives my love and admiration for the way she held her nerve and tongue till the last moment.
