Garden Supper – 28th June 2008

This year, magic and mayhem with Steve Price - Gospel illusionist. No cameras - no mirrors - just intriguing tricks and illusions to present a Gospel message.

Also good food out in the garden (weather permitting).

As usual we are relying on the generosity of chapel members for the food and drink so if you feel you can donate some culinary delight then please see Linda Long who is organizing the receiving of the food.

We will also require some assistance putting up gazebos, tables, chairs etc. as well as getting the stage ready on the Saturday morning. So if you are fit and able to assist with this then please let me know.

However, even if you can't provide food or assist in the preparation in any way please still come along. The evening will appeal to all ages and should be a good laugh as well as providing a message to anyone you bring along. So bring them along and come yourself at 7.00 in time for food at 7.15 on the 28th June. See you there.
