Training for Crisis Pregnancy Counselling 2009

Many women face the deeply traumatic situation of finding themselves unexpectedly pregnant. Often they face making life changing decisions alone, or without a clear explanation about their options. We at Choice offer a supportive environment in which a woman can discuss her situation, the options available, and the implications of each option. She can then come to a well-informed decision of her own choice about the pregnancy.

In order to provide an excellent standard of counselling, and to enable Choice to expand the service that we offer the public, we are looking for more advisors to undergo training in crisis pregnancy counselling. This involves 16 training sessions, and will cost £90. We are planning to begin it in January 09.

Each applicant will be given an interview at the beginning and end of the training. References will be taken up, and a trainee will need to be known in his/her church. (Male advisors are welcome). A current CRB certificate will be required before counselling begins.

Please contact Julie Harvey to request more information.
