Peter Sampson will be doing a second session on Understanding the Bible. He has written the following paragraph to explain what he is attempting:

A second related topic could be 'Understanding the Bible'. Again there seems to be an urgent need to teach some basic principles of Biblical interpretation, not primarily for preachers but for lay Christians to apply in their own group and private studies. The development of House Bible Study groups necessitates that group leaders, at least, should grasp the fundamental principles of interpreting the Bible.

The Seminar is set for Friday, 25 Sept. at 7.30pm at Century Hall, Puckeridge.

All are welcome,
Andrew C.

We are running a trial Messy Church on Sunday 18th October! This is a new type of service aimed at all ages, with a lot of art/craft/messy activities as well as some action-oriented singing and a short accessible talk.

In order to give kids and their parents the best chance of joining us, this will run from 3.30 to 5.30. We won't have an Evening Service that evening as we will all be worn out!

Please give the event as much support as you can, both in prayer and in attendance – and see Andrew P if you want to volunteer to help.

The Harvest service will be held on Sunday 4th October 2009 at 6:30pm and the Harvest Dinner will be on Saturday evening 10th October 2009. More details next week.

Curtains

We are having new curtains in the chapel as the old ones don't fit any more. If anyone can find a home for the old ones please see Linda.
