Joan Bullard

As most of you will know by now, Joan died on Wednesday at around 11.00 am in Garden House Hospice, Letchworth. I saw her the day before around 4.00 and she was very frail and weak. She is now with her Lord and free from pain, which as the apostle Paul wrote, is better by far (Phil 1: 23). We thank God for her life; she was an outstanding example to us all of service and unfailing dedication to the needs of others. We will have a funeral and thanksgiving service for her at The Chapel on Tuesday 29th December at 2.00. All are very welcome. Please let me have any memories or thoughts on her life by email ASAP as I prepare her eulogy.
